Games have a one hour time limit and considered complete at that time.

A team shall consist of six players, but may play with as few as four players for a legal game. The following player combinations are legal: three females/three males, four females/two males, three females/two males, three males/two females, or two males/two females. If a team has less than four legal players, the match is a forfeit. If a fifth and sixth player arrives after a match has started, the player can enter the match as they arrive.

If the ball is hit more than twice on a side, one touch must be by a female.

Substitutions must take place only on a dead ball, and if the team is not rotating players. If desired, an eight-player rotation can be used where two players rotate off the court and not allowed to participate until rotating back on.

Three games are played per match, not a best of three series (except for playoffs). 25 points wins the game provided there is a two point lead with a 27 point cap.

For the first game of the match, the home team has the choice to take the serve or choice of side. The team not serving the first game shall serve the second game. The team not serving the second game shall serve the third game.

At the beginning of each game, the team serving shall NOT rotate. After the team first serving has lost the serve, their opponent SHALL rotate for their first serve. Teams rotate clockwise.

Contact with the net by a player, between the antennas, while the ball is in play is a fault. A player may step on the center line but only one foot is allowed to cross the line without interfering with play.

It is legal to contact the ball with any part of the body as long as it does not visibly come to rest. Serves must be done with a player's hands. Players are not allowed to scoop, hold or lift the ball.

If ball touches a boundary line it is in bounds. If two players contact the ball simultaneously, it counts as one hit and either may play the ball.

A spiker must contact the ball on their side of the net, but may in the course of his/her follow through cross over (but not touch) the net.

Blocking the serve is not allowed.

Blocking a return is not counted as a first contact, as a result the ball may then be played by the blocker for the first touch.

A Back Row Player may block when there is only one male player in the front line position.
